■ Action plan

The supplier does not offer LTB, nor can Winstar find alternative IC or find source for these IC models on the market.

We will recommend other standard products for your reference. If you'll need technical support with using the alternative LCD modules, we will be at your disposal.

At Winstar, we appreciate your support in our products, and we will do our best to guide you through the transition. If there is any further question, please feel free to contact us.

Thank you!

Best regards,

Vice President of Sales
